

2013 DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. ART, WRITING, & MULTIMEDIA CONTEST

RICKELL YANNO (10TH GRADE)
JACKSON-MILTON HIGH SCHOOL
DAVID VEGA, PRINCIPAL
KATELYN AMENDOLARA, TEACHER

My name is Rickell Yanno. I am a student at Jackson-Milton High School. I have decided to enter into the 2013 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Art, Writing and Multimedia Contest. I entered this contest to show what justice, peace and righteousness means to me as a student. While growing up, I have been through good and bad times. As a person I can take part in my community to bring peace, justice and righteousness. There is nothing wrong with going out and picking up a little trash or helping someone clean the street. The man with dream has taught me everything I know and I am more than happy to celebrate my birthday on January 21, 2013, MLK DAY! Taking part in showing justice, peace and righteousness is the one thing that is set in my heart and mind.

Drum Major Instinct

