Report from the Chief Legal Counsel

Chief Legal Counsel Stephanie Bostos Demers Bid farewell to Nandin Dave on his last day of our first virtual legal externship. She also reported on the Supreme Court's decision in Our Lady of Guadalupe Schools applying the ministerial exception to two teachers who sued under the ADEA and the ADA when they were released from their jobs as teachers with Catholic Schools. Lastly, she reported on the EEOC's establishment of a conciliation program and ramping up the mediation program.

Report from Executive Director

General Agency Overview

- Region Inventory
 - Statistics
 - Total Case Inventory:
 - Regions: 1,462
 - Cleveland 218
 - Columbus 341
 - Akron 234
 - Toledo 311
 - Dayton/Cincinnati 358
- ❖ Hearings Unit Inventory.
 - We have 106 cases in the Hearings section. Several hearings are scheduled for the month of September. The ALJ is preparing to hold these hearings via video teleconference.
- ❖ COVID-19 Inventory.
 - We have approximately 78 cases where COVID is alleged or implicated.
- ❖ AG Litigation Inventory.
 - No update at this time.
- ❖ Agency Overview.
 - HEMS Quality Control. Darlene and/or Ronnell are reviewing HEMS, the database for housing cases, to ensure that all the appropriate documents and entries have been made.

 - Executive Team Meetings: I have been meeting with the Executive Team members individually. The discussion during these meetings encompass reviewing daily job duties in conjunction with position descriptions, addressing the role the position serves within the Commission and the impact the position can have in the future. The interests and strengths of each member of the Executive Team were discussed. Each member offered suggestions regarding their role within the agency as well as things they would like to see implemented to propel the agency forward.

- Office Visit Protocol. We have staff go into the office occasionally to perform specific tasks. To ensure the safety of those who go to the office, safety procedures are being developed.
- Listening Tour. I am continuing my listening tour. As a result, I am getting to know the staff and they get a chance to get acquainted with me. My tour continues....

Fiscal

- The June FY2020 Finance Report was sent in the same email with this report for your review.

Human Resources

- Ron Morrison. Ron is retiring effective July 31st. Ron has been a member of the Commission's staff for 37 years. Ron was hired with the Commission on June 22, 1981. In fact, the Commission is the only state job he's had. I have had the opportunity to work with Ron for a mere four months. If those 37 years were anything like the last four months, I am confident that he will be missed. We wish him the best as he embarks upon his new journey.
- ePerformance Training. The second session of the ePerformance training is on August 11th. Those who did not attend the session on July 11th must attend this session.

Compliance

- Ethics Training to be completed by November 30th.

Outreach/Education/Training

- We have received several requests for training, and we are currently working on accommodating these training requests.

Legislative

- The Quarterly Legislative Report is attached for your review. (see Attachment A)

Regional Operations/Activities

- The stress of the pandemic and the continued teleworking is taking a toll on some of the staff. In an effort to keep everyone relaxed and stress free, Aman Mehra has agreed to conduct meditation sessions that will be open to the entire staff. Once the days have been selected, each staff member will receive an invitation.
- The Toledo Region had a poetry contest. The theme was "Working for the Commission During the Pandemic." All the poems were very creative, but the winning poem is titled "Whoever Thought" by John Maher. (see Attachment B). The poem receiving an honorable mention is titled "COVID Blues" by Ellena Lee. (see Attachment C).

Kudos Korner

- Charles Scandrick. Charles is an investigator in the Dayton Region. He received a letter from a constituent recognizing him for his “hard work and dedication.” The constituent expressed “special praise and gratitude” for “his exceeding customer service standards and thoroughness.” According to the letter, “Mr. Scandrick’s commitment and dedication should be mirrored by every Ohio Civil Rights Investigator.”
- Darlene Newbern. As we go about the daily business of the Commission, many unsuspecting issues occur that impacts the operation of the agency. Darlene has fervently addressed these issues as they occur ensuring that the agency continues to meet the needs of the constituents. She has stepped to handle matters when her “plate was already full.” She is greatly appreciated.
- Pamela Allen. I wish to express my gratitude to Pamela for taking the time to reach out to her colleagues to stay connected and to keep them encouraged.

Ron Morrison is retiring after 37 years of service to the Commission. He was presented with a resolution from the Commission for his good work and dedication. The Commissioners congratulated Ron Morrison on his retirement and wished him well.

Report from the Ohio Attorney General’s Office

The Civil Rights Section is transitioning and cleaning out offices to reduce IT consumption.

Remarks
